THE CITY’S CURRENT INTERNAL WEAKNESSES/CHALLENGES

Brainstormed list from all participants

• Lost experienced staff due to retirements and other movement
• Lack of funds to fill needed staff positions
• Lack of funds resulting in suspended programs in the police department
• Lack of funds resulting in reduced training for staff development
• Lack of replacement funding
• Staff spread too thin
• Budget and staffing reductions due to tax measure failure
• Lack of sufficient resources
• Limited funding for aging infrastructure
• Employee retirements – loss of institutional knowledge
• Lack of face-to-face communication with residents, other staff, and other members of the public
• COVID – return to work; will we ever be at “full work force” again
• Maintain/sustain motivation for staff
• Vision – reassuring staff their future at the city, the future OF the city, and opportunities for improving the community.
• Limited funding and lean staffing
• Retirement of key staff
• COVID restrictions: on businesses, organizations, meetings, events, community outreach, remote working, connecting
• Limited resources to reach non-digital, at-risk population
• No vacant land for new development (all adaptive reuse)
• Aging commercial real-estate
• No Transient Occupancy Tax
• No industrial real estate
• Limited “in person” community involvement/outreach due to COVID
• No GSD Director
• No easy solution to homeless issues/complaints from residents
• Severe budget deficit
• City staffing reductions as a result of budget shortfall, particularly in the police department, resulting in significant service delivery cuts.
• Recruitment and retention issues, particularly at PD, as a result of employees fearing salary freezes/cuts, or feeling underappreciated by some elected officials.
• City has unfunded liabilities (e.g., unpaved roadways, aging city facilities, depreciating equipment), and no funding mechanism to resolve long-term budget deficits.

EXTERNAL FACTORS/TRENDS THAT WILL/MIGHT HAVE A POSITIVE IMPACT ON THE CITY IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS

Brainstormed list from all participants

• Sunrise Mall Redevelopment
• New charter school started and plans are in process to build their new campus.
• City is an affordable community to purchase property
• Chamber of Commerce is getting stronger and more engaged in the business community
• Vaccine for Covid is loosening up the stronghold on business
• Businesses find CH attractive for expansion – Green Acres, Checkboard/Rolly’s, etc
• Changes in state and local funding options
• New businesses opening up in the City of Citrus Heights
• Success of the COVID vaccine and treatments
• Change in administration – potential for transportation stimulus funds to come to region/City
• STA board may entertain a second “Measure A” on the 2022 ballot
• COVID recovery – potential to reinvent economic redevelopment, housing needs, mixed use, etc.
• Virtual meetings make it convenient and easy to meet, less travel time, lower costs
• Probable $14.6 million in unrestricted federal funding to relieve COVID budget impact
• Virtual meetings make it convenient and easy to meet, less travel time, lower costs
• Remote work results in less vehicles on the roadways
• Low interest rates
• Acceleration of retail apocalypse to catalyze the need for development
• Bay Area exodus to our region (families, business, jobs)
• New families to be attracted by upcoming regional development
• New presidential administration will likely provide more federal assistance and be more friendly to California
• Strong housing demand in Sacramento area
• Increased knowledge and acceptance of remote communications/operations
• Securing additional funding for the City
• Easy access to COVID vaccinations for the community
• Staff continue to optimize the use of technology and data to improve daily operations
• Pandemic ends and local businesses open back up as normal.
• Sunrise Mall redevelopment begins to break ground, leading to a revamped Downtown for Citrus Heights.
• Sylvan Corners develops into a robust and attractive hub for new residents.
• End of the COVID pandemic will happen this year

EXTERNAL FACTORS/TRENDS THAT WILL/MIGHT HAVE A NEGATIVE IMPACT ON THE CITY IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS

Brainstormed list from all participants
• COVID impacts are prolonged – adverse impacts to economy, work, quality of life
• New administration imposes more taxes for programs, will effect expendable income for our community.
• Market crash/recession
• State imposed housing and zoning mandates
• Covid-19 pandemic and impact on businesses/economy
• Increasing occurrence and severity of wildfires and other natural disasters
• Increasingly high construction costs
• Increased utility rates (electricity costs continue to rise, but assessment rates remain the same)
• Evolving digital landscape creates inability to protect dispel misinformation on un-owned channels
• Extent, duration, and damage to retail economy brought on by COVID
• Statewide housing crisis
• Homeless population influencing business and housing decisions
• Sky rocketing cost of construction for future development
• High construction costs – impacts public and private projects
• Another state mandated shut down due to stronger COVID strains
• Unemployment
• Social media – incorrect information spread throughout the community
• An anti-police and defund the police movement nationwide, could result in local pressures, particularly for elected officials.
• Politically divided nation.
• Social media creating narrative silos, and no one is listening to alternative points of view, causing divide.
• Potential recession.
• Forced closure of community center due to COVID pandemic
• High unemployment rates
• Utility cost increases
• Lack of funds to fix streets
• Legislation that continues to hamper law enforcement
• Lack of funds to replace needed city technology and other systems
• Sunrise Mall ownership
• Potential non-renewal of Sunrise MarketPlace
• One party system in California that provides an imbalance in our state government
• Potential backlash against the SJUSD for its delayed opening of schools
• Impact of lack of infrastructure when it comes to electric power; we want to move everything to electricity, but lack the resources to do so
• Continuing world unrest makes for economic uncertainty

IDENTIFY THREE-YEAR GOALS FOR 2021-2024
